

Descriptive Essay Example for Grade 6

In my country teenagers do not have jobs because they have the job to study. Being the student an, an excellent student, is the most important role for teenagers. <Making money as a teenager is not important.> It's important to make the parents proud and to compete for good universities and good jobs.

Families and parents think it is really important for children to study very hard, very long, no breaks, so they get the top placements in the school. There are many people in my country so only some can but there are only few spaces at university. So, the students who are at top places in schools are the ones who go to university. Students who attend the best universities get the best jobs. It's so important to get the best university then you can relax.

It's so important to make your parents proud. Our country was at war in the 1950's and our parents worked very very hard to get around over above it. The country had nothing. We are like Japan; parents work very many hours and students must study hard. Working hard brings honor to the family. Top scores are very important so parents feel proud of their son's hard work.

Our culture does not think teenagers should have to make money. Parents pay for the teenager's shelter, food, and clothing. Working would take time away from studying. Parents have the job to make money. Teenagers have the job to study very hard.

To concluding, teenagers should not work, they should do their very best in school and make a parent proud.
