

Narrative Essay outline

I. Introduction

- Attention-grabbing opening sentence or hook
- Brief explanation of the situation or context that sets the stage for the story
- Thesis statement that previews the main theme or message of the narrative

II. Background Information

- Description of the characters, setting, and plot elements that provide context for the story
- Historical or cultural context that is relevant to the story
- Introduction of any conflicts or obstacles that the protagonist faces

III. Rising Action

- Series of events that build suspense and tension and lead up to the climax
- Character development through actions and dialogue
- Use of sensory details to create a vivid and engaging narrative

IV. Climax

- Turning point in the story where the conflict or obstacle reaches its peak
- Moment of revelation or realization for the protagonist

V. Falling Action

- Series of events that follow the climax and lead to the resolution
- Explanation of the consequences or aftermath of the climax

VI. Resolution

- Conclusion of the story that ties up loose ends and provides a sense of closure
- Reflection on the theme or message of the narrative
- Final thoughts and reflections on the story

VII. References

- List of all sources cited in the essay, including books, articles, and other publications.

Note: The structure of a narrative essay may vary depending on the length and complexity of the story. The outline presented here serves as a general guide for structuring a compelling and engaging narrative essay.